

Welcome to AVEIRO

Places not to miss

Aveiro Saltpans
Costa Nova Beach
Vista Alegre Factory

Nicknamed by many as the "Portuguese Venice", because of its canals and Ria, which are navigated by the very beautiful boats, typical of the city, the so-called moliceiros, Aveiro is a city that has the right mix of atmospheres between the contemporary and the traditional. . The Humberto Delgado square, which is right on top of the Central Canal, is a good option to take a moliceiro ride, which will give you a different perspective of the city and its magnificent angles. After the tour, you can wander through the alleys around the canal, where you can appreciate several art nouveau buildings, "come across" an antiques fair, visit the Fish Market and the old fishermen's houses. Don't forget to stop by the Oficina do Doce, where you can enjoy the famous "soft eggs". Another must is to visit the unmissable Costa Nova Beach with its famous striped houses, another true ex-libris of the city.
